

We are a non-profit association which relies heavily on faxing to our members. We cannot obtain email addresses for all our members, but we do have fax numbers.

In order to communicate with our members, we need to be able to send fax messages.

Please do not change this with new regulations.

Thank you,
Craig Sedgwick
International President of International Printing Management Association